Local Food

As the Farm to Fork movement takes hold across America, home gardeners and landscapers are becoming more aware of the local food movement.

What is Local?

- A specified geographic region?
- Within your state?
- Why not your own garden?

A parting thought...

Putting your yard to good use by growing your own food will provide you a sense of self sufficiency and provide you the ability to share the surplus with your friends and neighbors, and open the door for a wide range of opportunities, and effectively strengthen your community.
